KINDLY BRING THIS CATALOG WITH YOU TO THE SALE

ANNOUNCEMENT

In presenting this catalogue to the public, we do so with the feeling of satisfaction that the animals catalogued will be found to be good and well bred.

Superior Goods, the great show and breeding bull, has been the chief stock bull. His value as a sire will be seen sale day. Ten head of our this years show herd are sired by him, and they have been standing well up in the money at some of the strongest shows this season and his get won first at the South Dakota State Fair. Lady Broadhooks was senior champion at the same show. She is by Superior Goods as well as Mayflower 3rd and Superior Domino, two calves that each have a Junior Champion to their credit this year.

Some of the cows in this offering carry his service, some have calves at foot by him and the rest are bred to Mar Don Rodney, the bull we bought for use in the herd last November.

The bull offering consists of show and herd bull prospects, with the best of breeding back of them.

With the sincere wish that you may find pleasure and profit in a visit to our farm November 9, we are

Yours very truly,

Geo. W. Retzlaff & Son

Mar-Don Rodney was offered for sale last November by Mr. J. J. Chambers ,of Sodorus, Ill., when he dispersed his herd at one of the high averages of the year. After looking over his calves we found that he was a breeding bull, and we bought him at one of the highest prices paid for a Short Horn bull last year. He has been shown some in just ordinary breeding condition, as a two year old, winning 4th at the Great Ohio State Fair, 4th at the Illinois State Fair and 4th at National Western Stock Show at Denver. He also won first in class at five leading district fairs and Grand Champion at Decatur, Illinois. Mr. P. G. Ross states that he is of the best branch of the August family, and that his dam wa sthe best Augusta cow in the Maxwalton herd.

Our first calves by him are coming on now and all of them are good, and of good colors. Mar-Don Rodney has recently been pronounced by good judges as one of the best sons of Imp. Rodney.
